

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

McMullen Facades Ltd. maintains a quality system to the requirements of ISO 9001:2008 and adopts the principles of "Right First Time" to meet the requirements of the customer.

The company is committed to compliance to the quality system and to its continual improvement. Quality is audited regularly by a team of auditors and reviewed by the Senior Management Team who set and review quality objectives.

The Company strives to provide excellence of service and to be the preferred choice of its customers.

The control of quality is the responsibility of all employees to ensure that the customer receives not only a quality product matching their specifications, but also a quality service before and after sales. It is the goal of the Company to over deliver on this promise.

We are dedicated to putting our customers first.

Signed
